Wilderness Voyageurs

WHERE WILL YOU EXPLORE BY BIKE IN 2024?

About Our Tours

TOUR TYPES

Whether you prefer riding scenic backcountry roads or car-free rail-trails, we have a tour for you.

Rail-Trail Bike Tours: Primarily converted rail-trail or bike paths, completely car-free. A variety of flat, graded path surfaces, including limestone, dirt, etc.

Road Bike Tours: Largely paved road surfaces with some car traffic (routes designed to minimize riding on high-traffic roadways).

Gravel Bike Tours: Mixed surface riding at its finest! Secondary roads & paths with gravel, pavement, dirt, rocks & grass. Very different than a rail-trail.

TOUR DIFFICULTY RATINGS

Our goal is to make our tours accessible to everyone, many are geared for beginner to intermediate riders, with route options for advanced riders.

Easy: Flat and slightly downhill. 3-4 hours daily riding.

Relaxed: Flat to gently rolling routes. 3-4 hours daily riding.

Active: Flat to hilly terrain and moderate mileage. 4 hours daily riding.

Experienced: Longer mileage and mixed terrain. 5-6 hours daily riding.

Advanced: Epic routes for serious road cyclists. 6-8 hours daily riding.

Please see how the rating system applies to your style of tour:

NATIONAL PARKS: Explore 24 National Parks, including islands, peaks, wilderness, and history, on Wilderness Voyageurs Bike Tours!

#1 in Rail-Trail Bike Tours!

Rail-Trails are in our DNA; our headquarters are located along the Great Allegheny Passage in OhioPyle, PA. We offered our first rail-trail bike tour 24 years ago. Today, we have the privilege of sharing more than 30 incredible rail-trails across the USA on our wildly popular Rail-Trail Bike Tours. Eleven of these trails are in the Rails to Trails Hall of Fame.

Try one and you may become as obsessed about rail-trails as we are!

WHY TOUR WITH WILDERNESS VOYAGEURS?

60 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

We will celebrate 60 years of providing adventure experiences to our guests in 2024. Each tour benefits from our decades-long experience and our passion for pedaling backroads and rail-trail bike paths. Join us and see why so many of our customers return to bike with us and why we are the leader in rail-trail tours across the U.S.

“I had another awesome bike tour, my 9th with you! Great guides and a fun group of riders. What made this trip a little different was that we had two riders with 10 trips with WV and one rider with 11 WV trips. Kudos!”

– Doug H., Hackettstown, NJ

SUPPORTED FROM PEDAL TO PILLOW

Every bike tour is shadowed by a Support And Gear (SAG) wagon (van) and a sweep rider guide to ensure your day is smooth from first pedal stroke to your happy, tired head hitting the pillow. To help you navigate your vacation effortlessly we provide you with best-in-class, easy-to-use GPS technology.

BEST-IN-SHOW ROUTES

Each tour is designed to showcase the best of a region and allow you to ride at your own pace. We personally test ride each tour, including meeting all the people, staying in the same inns, and sampling the delicious fare. We pride ourselves on reliability and quality—your satisfaction is our sole focus.

INVITING ACCOMMODATIONS

We carefully select hotels and inns that offer a relaxing, inviting ambiance, sumptuously delicious meals, and comfortable accommodations. And we throw in many extras along the way like an evening soak at the local hot springs, wine tastings, bird watching, history lessons, etc.

INTIMATE GROUPS

Your two tour guides give you a great deal of personal attention. We keep the group size small, with a maximum of 14 riders. These small group sizes also lend themselves to building new friendships and deepening existing ones. Have a group and want a private tour? Call one of our specialists for details.

MAXIMUM RIDE TIME

When we say, “6-day tour,” we mean it. Many companies use the first day as an introduction, but we believe you should bike on every single day of your tour. Come log some miles, explore new places, and enjoy the great outdoors with us. Find out firsthand why guests who have biked with other bicycle touring companies now prefer Wilderness Voyageurs!

YOUR GUIDES

More than just passionate cyclists, your guides are also historians, ornithologists, storytellers, writers, and so much more. Most importantly, they are dedicated to taking care of you. Your guides can fix your flat, adjust your derailleur, and encourage you up a hill on that final mile. They make sure you're comfortable with daily route directions, your GPS device, and ensure no one is left behind.

Get to know all our guides online.

STAY TUNED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR...

Visit our website for the most current announcements of new departure dates and new tours that are released throughout the year. Our website also has great informational videos on all of our tours so that you can get a feel for the destination and the riding on each tour. The following tours are in the works:

PEDAL & PICKLE

We are combining two of the country's favorite sports these days: cycling and pickleball! Introducing Pedal and Pickle in Vegas! That's right. Vegas! This trip combines classic Vegas riding through the scenic Red Rocks Canyon. A ride to Hoover Dam combined with a tour and pickleball at world class courts in the evenings. Tours beginning in February. Check online for more information.

NATCHEZ II THE FULL TRACE

The paved parkway, a National Park roughly follows the "Old Natchez Trace," a historic corridor used by Native Americans, European settlers, soldiers and future presidents. For those wanting the whole enchilda, this tour will ride all 444 miles of the Natchez Trace Parkway, from Nashville, TN to Natchez, MS.

COLORADO MOUNTAIN BIKING

Take the mountain bike trip of a lifetime! Colorado's singletrack is challenging and fun, and the scenery is nothing short of incredible. Summer in Colorado is glorious — wildflowers, blue skies, and pleasant temps. Every day we'll ride somewhere new, and then hit up one of Colorado's many craft breweries. Watch for a special "Women Only" departure.

FAQ

What pedals come on your rental bikes?

The standard pedal is a platform pedal without cages or toe clips.

Can I bring my own bike?

YES! Please make sure your bike is suitable to the tour you are taking. Also, it must be in good condition and well tuned. We are not able to accommodate recumbents or trikes at this time. This is due to the difficult storage and transportation logistics of these bikes. If an E-bike, only pedal assist bikes are allowed.

If I rent your bike, can I bring my own pedals?

YES! We need to know ahead of time that you will be bringing your own pedals, so please make a note of it on your registration sheet.

Kona Dew E - A pedal assist bike that is nimble and responsive. Contact our office for availability.

KONA ROVE/LIBRE

The Swiss Army knife of drop bar bikes, great for pavement and dirt roads and especially rides that span both.

“Our guides were exceptional. Caring, affable and dependable. The scenery spectacular. Best of all, my goal was to have my husband enjoy biking as much as I do, and that goal was accomplished! Looking into more trips!”
